

Debrief

With your partner, discuss your observations from the video and what approaches would work best for your partner.

Question for your partner: How did the Direct Support Professional present Sean with the information? If it were you, how would you want someone to give you information?

Question for your partner: How did the Direct Support Professional present Sean with his choices? If you were in that scenario, how would you want the choices presented?

Question for your partner: How did they help Sean understand? What are ways people can help you understand?